

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 25, 1906.

LOCAL TEAM WINS THE GREAT RELAY

Virginia Defeated by George Washington University.

FLEMING'S EXCELLENT RUN

By a Wonderful Spurt He Left His Opponent Far Behind.

SPORTS AT CONVENTION HALL

Fully Five Thousand Persons Witnessed the Contests, Many of Which Were Close and Exciting.

The third annual interscholastic and open-track and field games, given under the auspices of the Washington high schools in Convention Hall last night, was a pronounced success and reflected great credit on Manager Foley and his able corps of assistants. Although the immense seating capacity of the hall was not tested, there were fully 5,000 persons present, and everybody hugely enjoyed the exciting sport.

There were twenty-six events on the program, including running, jumping and putting the shot, and there was not a defaulting number in the lot, everybody being on hand to stand by their entries. The preliminary trials of the sprint races should have started at 7:45, but were delayed for some reason until five minutes after eight, about the only flaw in the evening's entertainment. The admirers of the sport began gathering at the hall as early as 6 o'clock, and when the doors were opened at eight, the throngs were on hand to rush through the entrance. A detail of police were on hand, and the big crowd was kept in going in and coming out without a hitch of any sort.

Feature of the Evening.
The feature of the evening's sport was the final number, a two-mile race between the University of Virginia and George Washington University, which the latter won by fully fifty yards after a desperate struggle by the local aggregation. The two teams were made up as follows: George Washington University—S. T. Lomax, captain; W. R. Babcock, R. P. Fleming and A. D. Stivers.

The hero of the event was the diminutive Fleming. The little fellow picked up a lead of fifteen yards at the start, and his run was fully forty yards in the lead. He trailed behind Burke by about a yard on the fourth round and then jumped back to the front. Then came the sensational fifth lap and quickly left his opponent far in the rear. The sport was so sudden and unexpected that the spectators were startled, and the race was won by a margin of fifty yards.

Virginia in the Lead.
McNagney and Stivers were the first pair away, and the latter led the lead for about two laps, when the Virginian shot to the front and gained so rapidly that he was twenty yards ahead of the field when he turned the second relay over to Gray. Babcock proved a boy of speed and stamina. He went after Gray at a merry clip, gradually wearing down the lead until he had picked up about ten yards, leaving the Virginian fifteen yards to the good on the finish of the second relay.

The task of overtaking Burke on the third relay was the midday Fleming appeared a hopeless task, but the crowd went wild as the little fellow picked up yard after yard, and at the end of the second lap was well in the lead. Then came the sensational fifth lap and quickly left his opponent far in the rear. The sport was so sudden and unexpected that the spectators were startled, and the race was won by a margin of fifty yards.

When the event was finished several hundred of George Washington's cheering carried their victorious team to the dressing room on their shoulders. The University of Virginia's team, which was Washington recently in Richmond by about two yards, and last night's victory proved a complete reversal of the situation. The margin was 54-1-5, while not phenomenal, was very good when it is considered that Lomax took things easy on the final relay.

A Fiercely Contested Event.
The final of the fifty-yard novice was a fiercely contested event, the first three men finishing with only an eyelash between them. The winner was Carl Tansky of Baltimore City College, who got away well and breasted the tape just ahead of Benny Crampton of Western High School. L. Lloyd of Western was third.

The fifty-yard novice was something of a procession. Irwin Hardy of Woodberry Forest School, Orange, Va., being an easy winner by four feet. Hardy has a long stride and got over the ground like a professional.

The first relay of the evening was for the District graded school championship. The team brought out from the University of Virginia and Franklin, the first named winning easily by twenty-five yards. The Webster boys got off in the lead and were in no danger.

A misunderstanding occurred in the District relay Sunday school championship relay between Mount Pleasant Congregational and Gurley Presbyterian, the boys stopping at the end of 800 yards instead of going 1,200 yards, the first named winning easily. After a conference the officials decided to let the race stand.

The one-mile open handicap was full of excitement. P. Brenton of Johns Hopkins, thirty yards shooting to the front in the last lap and winning by a foot from L. G. Connor, Columbia Athletic Club, the latter being scratched man.

Business High School captured the 1,200 yards relay from Central and first-year boys by fully fifteen yards. Wallace of Central fell on the first lap and lost fifty yards, twenty-five of which were picked up by Hildebrand in the last lap amid the greatest excitement and yelling of the light blue admirers.

An Exciting Relay Contest.
The teams of the Brookland and Troquois athletic clubs put up an exciting relay contest, the latter winning by ten yards. The Brooklands were slightly in the lead when the first man finished, but the last three men of the Troquois were the best and kept gaining until the tape was reached.

S. T. Mealy carried the colors of the Mount Pleasant Athletic Club to the front in the 400-yard open handicap, finishing first, with five yards separating him from H. Fletcher of the University of Virginia.

School, Western winning by a yard from Friends' Georgetown being away back. The one mile relay between the Columbia Athletic Club and the local Y. M. C. A. was an easy victory for the former, who won by over one hundred yards.

Won by an Inch.
The splendid work of Phelan for Western enabled his team to beat the Georgetown Preparatory seniors by about an inch. He had a handicap of about eight yards to make up in the final relay, and he did the feat in the game manner, the adherents of Western fairly raising the roof with applause over the victory.

Edward scored an easy victory over Busness in the one-mile relay.
